

FALCONS

Dedicated To James Ingersoll

We want to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James Ingersoll. Mr. Ingersoll was one of the best principals of Fremont. He cared about students, parents and teachers. He retired in October of 1984 after seven and one-half years at Fremont. We wish him well.

Mr. Ingersoll completed his B.S. in June, 1949, and his M.A. in August, 1952. He started his teaching career in Berkeley, California, as a classroom teacher. He began his career in the Oxnard School District in September, 1954, as a principal at Haydock School. He was also a principal at Kamala, McKinna, Juanita, and Rose Avenue Schools. He became the principal at Fremont Intermediate School in 1977, and remained there until his retirement.

Mr. Ingersoll worked on various committees in the district. He has been an active member of the Oxnard Optimist Club and also of the Association of California School Administrators. He works on antique clocks and is very handy around the house.

We feel privileged to dedicate this 1985 Yearbook to James Ingersoll.

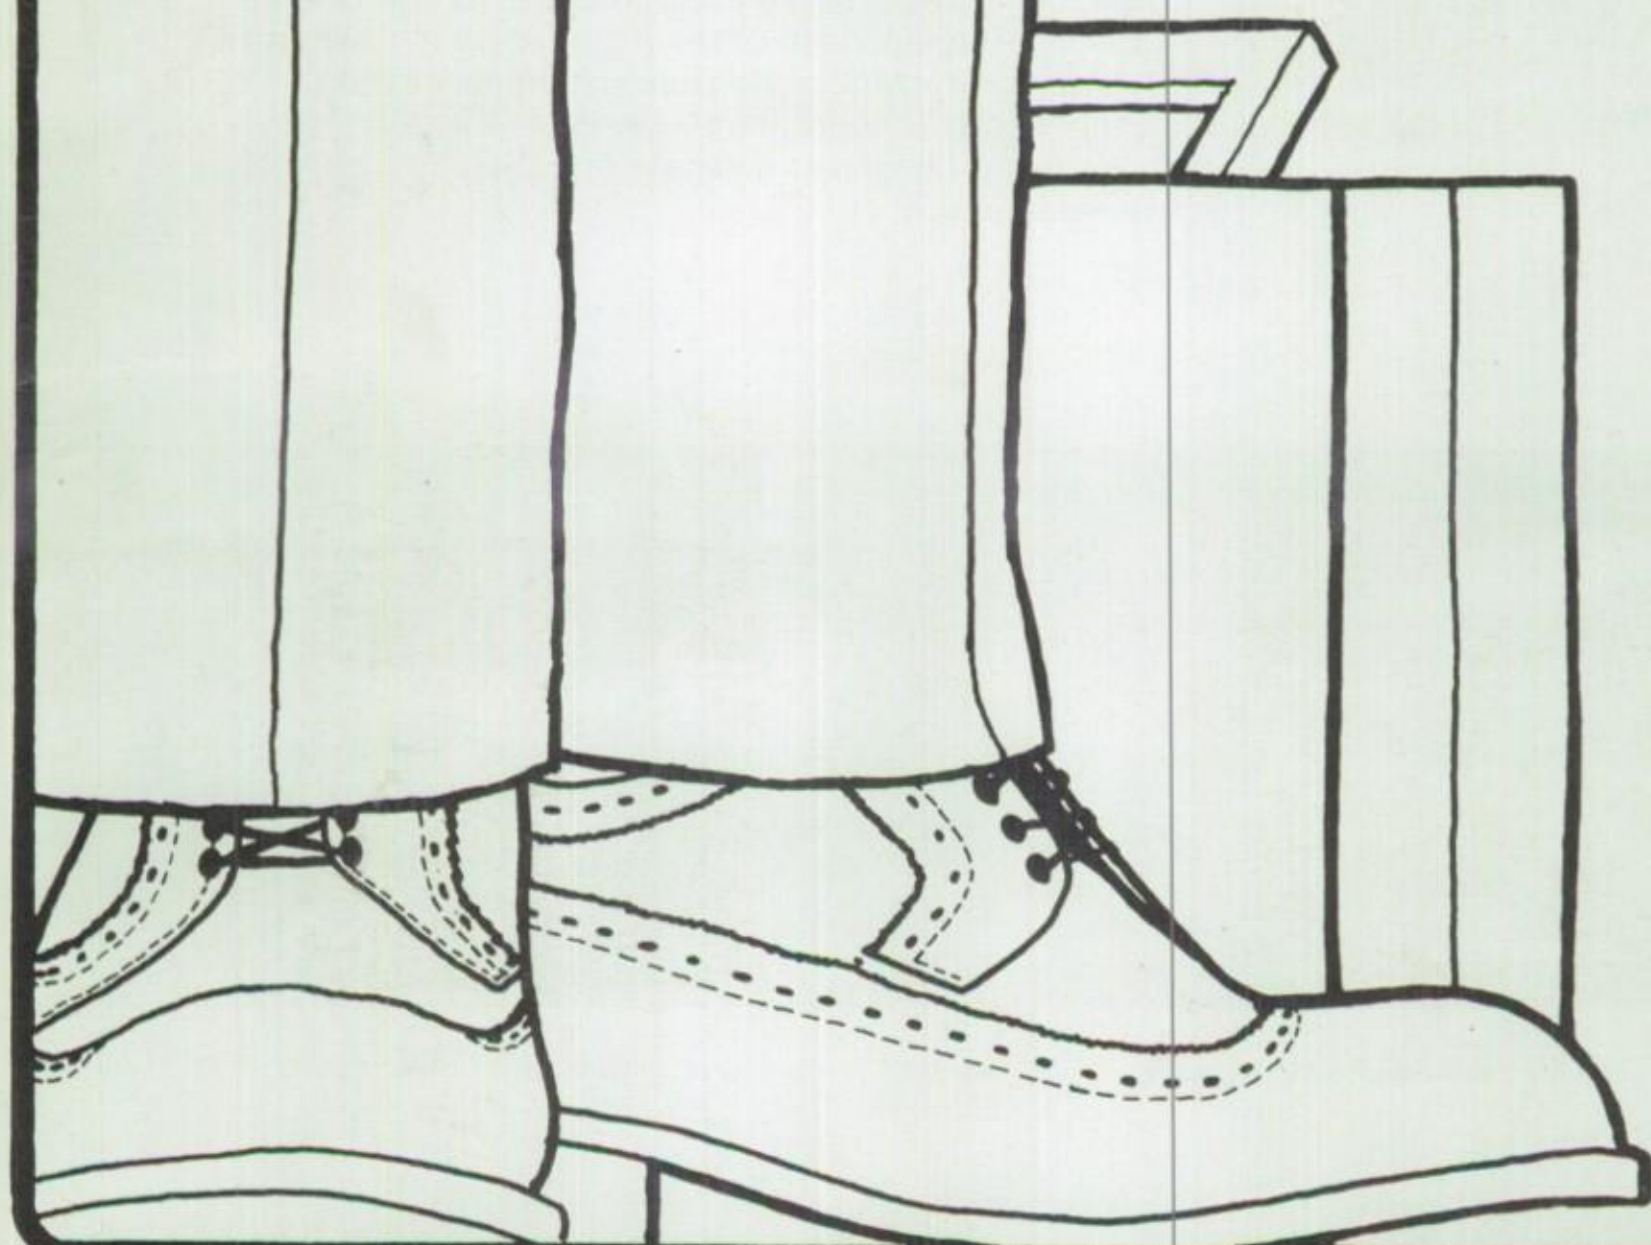

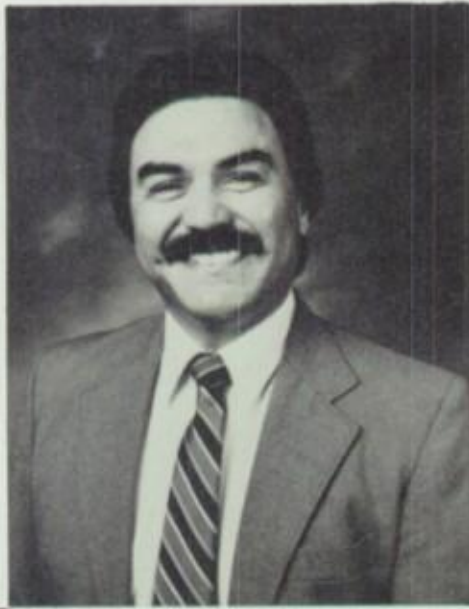

Student Council presented this cake to Mr. Ingersoll.

Gadiel Plaza presents a giant card to Mr. Ingersoll from Track D Students.

In The Classroom

1. Ms. Flores keeps her class happy!
2. It's a challenge to get to class on time.
3. Who knows the correct answer?
4. Science stumps us all.
5. Just 10 more seconds!
6. This history test counts!

Classroom work is an important part of Fremont life. On these pages are students and teachers shown in the variety of classes. Students take math, reading, social studies, science, language arts, English, art, computers, study skills, and physical education.

1. Students get help.
2. Everybody wants to smile.
3. Reading can be fun.
4. Creative artists!
5. Fremont students write.
6. Listen to the spelling words.
7. Computer class makes everyone think.

Lunchtime Activities

1

2

3

4

5

1. Our noon aides.
2. Checking the score.
3. The game's over.
4. Enjoying the food!
5. Get that ball over.
6. Keep those tables clean!

6

Lunch time at Fremont was a good relaxation time for everyone. Volleyball and basketball tournaments were organized. Teams were formed through physical education classes. Many students participated. Most students like to visit with their friends during lunch time.

1. Waiting for the bell.
2. Track A students.
3. What a leap!
4. Mr. Morrison on lunch duty.
5. Our head referee.
6. Winners of lunch basketball.
7. Great basketball was played at the lunch tournament.

Dances

Our jammin' D.J.

Getting down.

Ghosts come out at night.

We partied like it was 1999.

Fremont had many great dances. Some of them were at night like the Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine dances. The rest were after school. We had dances for all kinds of occasions aside from holidays, such as a Short People's Dance, Back to School Dance, and a Yearbook Signing Dance.

Let's go crazy.

Just waiting around.

Fremont Musicians

The Fremont band did many things during the year. They marched in the Oxnard Christmas Parade, played during the Oxnard Halftime, presented a Christmas Concert, went to the Agoura Festival, went to a festival at Rio Mesa, and marched in the Harbor Day parade. In addition, as seen in the picture at the bottom right, they worked hard every day in class.
